

THE STATE BANKS WIN A SPLENDID VICTORY

Court of Appeals Decides Back Tax Cases in Their Favor.

They Neither Have to Pay Taxes on, Nor List, Their Deposits.

GOOD NEWS FOR OVER THREE HUNDRED BANKS

Frankfort, Ky., June 18.—The court of appeals today affirmed the judgment of the Jefferson Common Pleas Court, third division, dismissing the suit brought by Auditor's Agent Frank Lucas, of Paducah, against the Bank of Commerce, seeking to assess and tax deposits of individuals in banks.

The whole court considered the case on appeal, and Judge Thomas H. Paynter delivered the opinion of affirmance.

The ruling of the court, which is of wide interest and importance all over the state, settles the law and dismisses about three hundred and fifty similar suits against as many banks in the state.

The court holds that banks are not, and cannot be, required to pay taxes on deposits with them, or on assets which represent them, and further, that as bailees or trustees in possession, they are not under any duty to list the property sought to be assessed by Lucas.

The suits in question were filed a few months ago all over the state, and many of them were promptly dismissed in the lower courts.

A conference was held with the auditor's agent and attorneys in Louisville, and it was agreed to make a test case of the Bank of Commerce suit, which was won by the bank in the lower courts.

It was promptly appealed, and the court now decides it against the auditor's agent, whose action was repudiated by Auditor Hager, the latter stating that the suits were brought without his sanction or authority. This question, however, was unimportant so far as the main questions were concerned.

Agent Lucas, had he won the cases, would have secured as his commission between three and four million dollars and the total amount directly involved on past deposits, to say nothing of what would have had to be paid in the future, was nearly fifteen million dollars.

MANY MOURNERS IN MANY HOMES TODAY

Over 100 Funerals of Slocum Victims Held.

271 Bodies Are Still Unidentified—
The Wreck Still Conceals
Many Others.

GOVERNMENT TO INVESTIGATE

New York, June 18.—This is the first funeral day of the victims of the Slocum disaster. More than a hundred funerals occurred and the stricken Eastside district was thronged with mourners.

Services were held in churches of all denominations because persons of numerous religious beliefs were among the victims. From 9 o'clock there was almost a constant stream of hearsees to the cemeteries.

A tabulation now shows 562 bodies recovered of which 533 are identified. The missing are placed at 271.

Despite the stirring work of the divers and grapplers, and the watchfulness of scores of men who have given themselves over to the task of searching for the missing, but few bodies of those who perished in the Slocum disaster have been discovered since Thursday. It was stated by divers who went down into the wreck that there are many bodies still under the entanglement of timbers and paddle wheels, and that it would be necessary to dynamite the bulk or raise it before they could be reached.

The Knickerbocker Steamboat Company, which owns the General Slocum, resigned all claim to the boat on the agreement that it should receive $70,000, the amount for which the boat was insured. The insurance companies and the wrecking company failed to agree on terms and if the boat is raised at all the cost probably will come out of the city treasury.

Secretary Cortelyou of the department of commerce and labor will personally undertake the investigation into the disaster on behalf of the government district.

GRAND OPENING

The Big New Century at Dawson Well Filled.

Mr. Henry Rudy, of Paducah, Led the German—300 Attend.

The New Century hotel at Dawson Springs was last night formally opened with one of the most delightful and magnificent balls ever witnessed.

Paducah society was well represented, and Mr. Henry Rudy, of the city, led the German. There were fully three hundred at the ball, which eclipsed anything ever seen in Dawson, and all were the very best people from Paducah and surrounding cities.

The New Century is now well filled with guests, and is one of the swellest hotels in the state. It is this year under the management of Messrs. Charles Reed, of the Palmer house, and Mr. I. D. Wilcox, of Paducah, the latter having the active management of the hotel.

Mr. Reed returned this morning from Dawson, having been up for several days preparing for the opening. He is well pleased with the popularity of his hotel, and with the success of the big opening last night. The indications are for a prosperous season.

The Daily Mail, in an editorial, says that the correspondent is mistaken and that the force is a Russian Japanese army under General Nodzu moving from Sin Yen to intercept West General Staekelberg's retreat.

HAPPY DAUGHTER FINDS FATHER DEAD

Came Here to Join Him and Go to World's Fair.

The Aged Man Who Fell From Trestle Died in City Hospital
Last Night.

HE LIVED IN INDIANA

J. W. Robbins, the stranger who fell from the Illinois Central trestle or was assaulted Thursday night, died at the city hospital last night about 10:30 o'clock, never having regained consciousness. His identity was not known until late yesterday afternoon when the police found letters on his person giving his name and residence.

Robbins had been in Paducah only since Thursday and intended meeting relatives here. The cause of his death will probably always remain a mystery, as no one saw him fall from the trestle and if he was assaulted the persons committing the assault had other intentions than robbery, as $2.50 was found on him when the police carried him to the city hospital. It is reasonably certain, however, that he fell.

Mr. S. Gerard, of Madison, Ind., a son-in-law of the deceased, arrived yesterday with his wife, to meet Robbins, and from Paducah the three intended going to the St. Louis Fair. Robbins lived at Hanover, Ind., and came here on a visit to Mr. Mack English, of Mechanicsburg, and was to have met his daughter and son-in-law here yesterday at Mr. English's home. Thursday night Robbins went to church with Mr. English and wife and after reaching home decided he would come to town and stay. He informed English that he would return Friday night and in case his daughter arrived to tell her to wait for him.

This was the last heard of Robbins until this morning when the son-in-law came into Nance's undertaking shop and identified the dead man as his father-in-law.

Mr. Gerard arrived with his wife yesterday and not finding Robbins at the English house started on a futile search. All this time Robbins lay unconscious at the city hospital, where his daughter might have been in his last hours, had she only known.

Chief of Police Collins found a letter in Robbins' pocket arranging the meeting at the English house and went there, finding the son-in-law and his wife. He took them to Nance's shop and they readily recognized the body.

There is much speculation as to how the man met death, some thinking he fell from the trestle while others think he was assaulted but it

MAN RELEASED YESTERDAY LOCKED UP AGAIN LAST NIGHT.

Fred Elliott, alias Fred Hellyer, alias Helbyer, the tailor dwarf, is in the lockup again today, this time for petty larceny. He carried a basket and after trying it to the wheel he rode away.

He has a wheel of his own, which he left near Third and Broadway, and seemed to be befuddled and not aware of the fact that he didn't have his own property. He was arrested last night and informed the police that he simply wanted to save time. He was locked up and will be tried for larceny if he has not improved by Monday.

For the corresponding week last year, $698,405.

A slight decrease is shown in the clearings over last year. Business in all circles the past week has been fairly good, and retail dry goods merchants have been busy, showing and disposing of light summer fabrics, which are in such demand at this season.

A movement is on foot to close the groceries in Paducah at 7 p. m. except on Saturday nights. Some of the groceries close at 7 now, but others keep open until 8, 9, 10 o'clock and some even until midnight where a saloon is run in connection with them. It is not known at present what the chances are.

ITALIAN BUYING

Many False Reports About What it Will Do.

Will Buy Only 20 Per Cent of What it Did Last Year.

The papers in the district are publishing a great deal in regard to the purchases of tobacco by the Italian government in this section, and yesterday's Mayfield Messenger states that the Italian government has with drawn from this market.

The facts in the matter as given the Sun authoritatively today are that the Italian government has been buying in five towns in Jackson's Purchase: at Paducah, Murray, Mayfield, Fulton, Ky., and Martin, Tenn. It usually purchases from 12,000 to 14,000 hogheads of tobacco a year in Jackson's Purchase, but this year will purchase not more than 2,500 or 3,000 hogheads in this section, because the quality does not suit it.

The Italian government, it is said, has not bought any tobacco for the past month in Jackson's Purchase, but has bought enough to make up, in the Clarksville district, where the tobacco suits it.

It was stated by a local buyer that the Italian government would probably buy the usual amount of this year's crop if it suits. Of the 1903 tobacco, however, it will not buy over the amount named above, or about twenty per cent of what it has been buying for the past several years, as the quality does not suit it.

THE DOWN GRADE.
 Vincennes made her first appearance in Paducah this season yesterday, and the crowd that went out to get their first look at the Hoosiers was as disgusted as rotten ball playing could make it. Land is out of the game on account of an injury, and Sessions, a man employed on the marine ways, said to have caught in big leagues a season or two ago, tried to back stop and couldn't. He did as well as could have been expected, considering that he was not in practice, but he couldn't hold Brady and the latter had to slow down.

BASEBALL NOTES.
 The local fans are getting disgusted over the lack of discipline in the Paducah club. They know the Paducah team can play ball and do not concede that there is any excuse for the failure to do so. The Cairo Bulletin says a few things that apply as well to Paducah as follows:

"There should be a code of rules for the government of the team. Certain hours to report and to retire and above all heavy penalties for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the team. There should be inaugurated a system of team work and make it compulsory that the men should not only see it but put it into effect in all Where indifference or sulking is manifested suspension without the offender. This bluff about jumping and playing independent ball is an old chestnut. The citizens in Cairo have generously contributed a large slice of money as a bonus to carry the team through the season and are entitled to get value received."

Land will be in the game again in a few days and the team will be itself again.

Sessions, who caught yesterday, is a ship carpenter, and was secured off the marine ways. He has been playing amateur ball. He played it yesterday.

This afternoon the Hoosiers will be given a run for their money at Wallace park as the Indians have on war paint again and are going after scalp.

Land will catch and Freeman pitch and the team otherwise will be the same.

WHEEL FELL

Mr. Hollowell can bear no weight on the foot and will be crippled for several weeks.

His many friends will regret to learn of the accident. Mr. Henry Rhue is acting in Mr. Hollowell's place at Central station.

BUT THE LITTLE GIRL THOUGHT IT WAS A DEAD MAN.

Special Officer Dick Tolbert was accosted this morning by a small boy who ran up breathless and imparted the startling information that his little sister had discovered the remains of a man under a crab apple tree on the outskirts of the city near the railroad shops.

Officer Tolbert went over to where the body was supposed to be and found a negro tramp sitting under a tree eating cakes and reading a newspaper. The negro had crawled under the tree and gone to sleep. The crumbs of cake attracted flies and they were swarming all about his body and he had put a newspaper over his face to keep them off. The little girl supposed it to be the body of a dead man covered up by paper.

And many a rubberneck turned to admire

As she felt
Of her belt
At the back.

She wondered if all the contraptions back there

Were fastened just right—'twas an unceasing care.

So she felt
Of her belt
In the back.

I saw her at church as she entered her pew;

And she felt
Of her belt
At the back.

She had on a skirt that was really and now

And didn't quite know what the fastening might do.

So she felt
Of her belt
At the back.

She fidgeted round while the first prayer was said.

She fumbled about while the first hymn was read—

Oh she felt
Of her belt
At the back.

Jack told her one night that he loved her like mad:

And she felt
For her belt
At the back.

She didn't look sorry, she didn't look glad—

She looked like she thought, "Well, that wasn't so bad."

And she felt
For her belt
At the back.

But—well I don't think 'twas a great deal of harm.

For what should the maiden have found but an arm

When she felt
For her belt
At the back.

MANY GO TO FAIR.

There is little going on in Paducah society at present aside from weddings for which June has been famous this year, and the exodus of many Paducahans to the world's fair. A number attended the opening of the Kentucky building on Wednesday, and every train going to St. Louis carries people from this city, to the great show.

SCHWAB-ALEXANDER.

The marriage of Miss Irene Schwab and Rev. David Alexander will take place next Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Temple Israel. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. William Fineschreiber, of Davenport, Iowa.

Miss Mayme Dryfus will be maid of honor and Mr. Abram Livingston best man. The bride will wear a gown of white net over silk, and the maid of honor will also wear white.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple will leave for Brooklyn, N. Y., where they will spend the summer.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Schwab and is one of the prettiest and most charming young women of this city. The groom is the rabbi of Temple Israel, and is an unusually bright and cultured young minister.

HICKMAN WEDDING.

The following from the Hickman Courier will be of interest here:

About the prettiest wedding that has occurred here this spring was that of Wednesday night, when John Steele Dillon and Miss Jessie Merriweather Isler were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Episcopal church, the Rev. C. L. Price officiating. The church had been beautifully decorated with wild flowers, evergreens and ferns, and preparations made that everything should be in accord with the prominence of those participating in the occasion. C. B. Travis acted as best man, Mrs. C. B. Travis, as matron of honor, Miss Koger of Paducah, as maid of honor, and A. M. DeBow and R. R. Isler as ushers.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride and the couple went to St. Louis on a bridal trip.

Those who attended the wedding from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Classcock and daughter, Miss Bessie; Mr. and Mrs. Radebaugh; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dietzel and Miss Pearl Chambers, all of Union City; Captain and Mrs. James Koger, son, David, and daughter, Miss Henrietta, of Paducah.

OTHER WEDDINGS.

Miss Ruby Cowan of Rutherford, Tenn., and Mr. Harry Johnson of this city, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kiser, in Rutherford. Mrs. William Johnson, mother of the groom, Mrs. Lawrence Razor, Jr., his sister and Mr. Pat Morrison, of the city, attended the wedding. After a wedding trip to St. Louis the couple will reside in this city.

The marriage of Miss Iona Gilbert and Dr. Hugh Edgar Smith took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride in Murray. The bride is well known in this city.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Augusta List and Mr. George Baker at the home of the bride, 431 South Fifth street Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Bonquin, pastor of the German Evangelical church. The couple are now on a wedding trip and will reside when they return at the residence of Dr. George Murphy on South Fifth street.

Miss Annie Ronff and Mr. Ernest Thomas were married Tuesday afternoon at the German Evangelical church. Rev. William Bonquin performed the ceremony.

The wedding of Miss Pearl Owen and Mr. Bennett Burnett will take place at 8:30 o'clock at the Trimble street Methodist church. Miss Owen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Owen, and is a pretty and attractive young woman. The groom is a young business man of Mayfield. The couple will reside in Mayfield.

MUSICAL RECEPTION.

Miss Virginia Newell gave a very pretty reception to her music class at her home on North Seventh street last night, closing its session of study. A medal was offered last January by Miss Newell for the pupil who put in the most hours in practice. It was won by Miss Mary Lou Roberts, whose record showed 237 hours and 20 minutes. It was a golden lyre, engraved with the word "Music." Misses Carrie Griffith and Annie Lee Hamilton stood close to Miss Roberts.

The home was effectively decorated and the refreshments carried out a novel idea. Fruit punch was served in the hall from a watermelon rind, around which were placed red geraniums. In the dining room, the table was decorated in red geraniums, and across one corner was a music staff in red. Watermelon and a salad course were served. Mrs. O. H. Chamblin and Mrs. Charles Simms presided in the dining room, and Miss Mary Scott served the punch.

A delightful musical program was rendered, in which Mr. Ed Scott and Mr. Grover Jackson assisted.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

The S. S. club had its last meeting for the season Thursday afternoon with Miss Annie May Yeiser, at her home in Aroclia. The club prize was won by Mrs. Frank Boyd and the guest's prize by Miss Irene Scott. The guests were: Mesdames Charles Kiger, Wheeler Campbell, J. O. Flournoy, Frank Boyd, Henry Bradley, Henry Yeiser, Cincinnati; J. C. Utterback, William Minnich, Will Gilbert, Mesdames Elizabeth Sinnott, Townley, New York, Martha Leach, Irene Scott, Lulu Reed, Ethel Brandon, Dresden, Tenn.; Ada Enders, Margaret Parks, Marjorie Crumbach, Susanne Jorgenson and Carrie Riecke.

The Industrial club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Kirchhoff, Jr., at her home on South Third street.

The Willing Workers and the Ladies' Mite societies of the German Evangelical church went to Metropolis Thursday afternoon to meet with Mrs. John Rook a former member of the societies, who has recently gone to Metropolis to reside.

The opening ball at the New Century hotel at Dawson Friday evening was attended by a number of Paducah people. It was a pleasant function and an auspicious beginning of summer gaities at the celebrated hotel.

Read Mr. Rhem's Letter

Pepsin Syrup Company, Monticello, Ill.

Gentlemen—I heartily commend Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a most excellent preparation, especially for stomach troubles; it also acts as a stimulating tonic for the entire system.

I have found it pleasant to take, as well as efficacious, and one of the few medicines which deserve hearty endorsement. It is often a serious question to know just what medicine to take and which is reliable; but I am thoroughly satisfied after my experience with Syrup Pepsin that it is a most reliable medicine for the digestive organs. Yours most truly,

Palmer House to be Equipped Throughout at Once.

Oumberland Secures the Contract—New Switch Board Installed.

The Palmer house, at Fifth and Broadway, has made a contract with the East Tennessee Telephone company to immediately install a telephone service in the hotel.

It calls for 100 of the latest and most perfect telephones, one of which will be placed in each room and operated by a switchboard in the hotel, presided over by one of the company's own operators. It will give each room in this up-to-date hotel connection with every telephone in the city as well as the long distance service without a guest having to leave his room.

The East Tennessee is preparing to install the service at once. It has just completed the new switch board in its local exchange, giving it a capacity of several hundred additional phones, and increasing the number of its operators 38 for the city service and 7 for its long distance lines. The Palmer house will be the second hotel in Paducah to install a special telephone service in its rooms, Hotel Lagomarsino having telephones since it was completed.

NO PUMPING YET

EVERYTHING IS READY, HOWEVER, TO RAISE CHATTANOOGA.

The steamer Dongola arrived from the scene of the Chattanooga wreck this morning for supplies and left just before noon on return trip.

No attempt has been made yet to pump the boat out, all preliminary arrangements being made before the pumps are started. The big Barrett dredge boat is on the scene which reinforced with the pumps of the Penguin and Dongola will be sufficient to pump the water out of the wrecked Chattanooga if this be possible at all.

From what can be learned of the condition of the boat she is pretty much soaked with mud and will be a hard hulk to float. The bulkheading has been finished and if it holds the steamboat men who are working with the boat think the attempts to float the craft will be successful.

BOND CASE NOT DISCUSSED.

The finance committee of the general council held a meeting last night at the city hall and passed on the various bills that came up at the council meeting Monday night, but did not consider the refunding of the over-the-river bonds, as expected. It likely it will come up later.

WISE WORDS

A PHYSICIAN ON FOOD.

A physician of Portland, Oregon has views about food. He says:

"I have always believed that the condition of the physician does not cease with treating the sick, but that we owe it to humanity to teach them how to protect their health especially by hygienic and dietetic laws."

"With such a feeling as to my duty I take great pleasure in saying to the public that in my own experience and also from personal observation I have found no food to equal Grape-Nuts and that I find there is almost no limit to the great benefit this food will bring when used in all cases of convalescence."

"It is my experience that no physical condition forbids the use of Grape-Nuts. To persons in health there is nothing so nourishing and acceptable to the stomach, especially at breakfast, to start the machinery of the human system on the day's work. In cases of indigestion I know that a complete breakfast can be made of Grape-Nuts and cream and I think it is necessary not to overload the stomach at the morning meal. I also know the great value of Grape-Nuts when the stomach is too weak to digest other food."

"This is written after an experience of more than 20 years treating all manner of chronic and acute diseases, and the letter is written voluntarily on my part without any request for it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a potent, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, Ky., March 5, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me, sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

Mrs. JOHN SNEDELY, 86 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

Mrs. SUE GRAHAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

KENTUCKY CROWD

LEAVES TUESDAY

Delegates and Others to Attend Republican Convention.

Quarters for the Kentuckians secured by National Committee—man John W. Yerkes.

MANY COURTESIES EXTENDED

The Kentucky delegation to the Republican National convention to be held in Chicago Tuesday will leave for the convention city Sunday night. Special coaches will be provided out of Louisville for the Kentuckians.

So far it is certain that the following well known Republicans will attend from Louisville: Former Governor W. O. Bradley, Augustus E. Wilson, Colonel Henry L. Stone, B. Bernheim, Leslie Combs, Postmaster T. H. Baker, Surveyor of the Port C. M. Barnett, Judge J. Wheeler McGee, H. S. Irwin and Collector of Internal Revenue J. A. Craft.

Many persons who would have attended the convention have been prevented from doing so by their failure to secure tickets to the convention hall. The pro rata of tickets given to the national committee has been reduced from 25 to ten apiece.

National Committeeman John W. Yerkes has engaged quarters in the Grand Pacific hotel for the Kentucky delegation.

The Kentucky delegation goes to the convention instructed for Roosevelt for president, but with no instructions as to the vice presidential nominee. A great number of the delegates from this state favor Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, although the delegation is in no way committed to him.

The Hamilton club, a big Republican organization of Chicago, has extended to the Republican league of Kentucky the privilege of using its club house during the convention season.

No one will probably attend from Paducah this year.

Kentucky's representatives on the various committees of the national convention will be as follows:

Resolutions—George W. Long, of Fourth district.
Credentials—John W. Lewis, of Fourth district.

Permanent Organization—J. M. Bowling, of Tenth district.
Rules and Order of Business—Brutus J. Clay, of Eighth district.

To Notify President of Nomination—J. M. Weaver, of Ninth district.

A Suggestion for Prudent Men

To the average man five or ten dollars a month saved appears too insignificant to pay for the effort, yet a laying aside of ten dollars each month and the judicious investment of it may prove the beginning of a fortune.

These ends are accomplished through the LEVEL PREMIUM SIX-YEAR BONDS of the Southern Mutual Investment Company of Lexington, Kentucky, which specifies the length of the investment period, seventy-four months, consequently the company may buy longer term securities than savings banks, which pay larger profits and are at the same time just as safe. The Southern Mutual Investment Company distributes all earnings amongst investors, in proportion to their investments. Furthermore, this company handles only the safest securities, taking no speculative chances, so that there is no possibility of loss to the bondholder, and he is further protected by the company's deposit of $100,000 with the Kentucky State Treasurer, by the facts that all officers and employees are heavily bonded in Fidelity Companies, and the business is controlled by state laws and under the supervision of state officials.

One unusually attractive feature of the Level Premium Six-Year Bond is that the redemption of coupons during the term of the contract secures an income to the bondholder, which, of course, may be compounded by reinvesting—a thing not accomplished under any other form of installment investment.

Men in any station of life may buy these bonds, and every one receives returns in absolute proportion to the size of the investment. The bond may be paid for by monthly installments of as little as $2.25, and any multiple of $2.25 may be invested.

This company, with its past experience and present earnings as criteria, estimates that on a net investment of $7.40 (extending over a period of seventy-four months) in this bond, the holder should receive a profit of $493.33-1/3.

Does any other institution, affording the same security, pay as great a profit in an equal period of time?

The Blazed Trail

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE

Copyright, 1902, by Stewart Edward White

The two sent mates had occupied their time each in his own fashion. The older stared straight before him and spat with a certain periodicity into the center of the aisle. The younger stretched back lazily in an attitude of ease. Sometimes he smoked a pipe. Thorne read over a letter. It was from his sister and announced her arrival at the little rural village in which he had made arrangements for her to stay. "It is interesting now," she wrote, "though the resources do not look as though they would wear well. I am learning under Mrs. Renwick to sweep and dust and bake and stew and do a multitude of other things which I always vaguely supposed came readily under my thumb. I like it, but after I have learned it all I do not believe the practice will appeal to me much. However, I can stand it well enough for a year or two or three, for I am young, and then you will have made your everlasting fortune, of course."

"That's a trump," said Thorne to himself, "and she shall have her everlasting fortune if there's such a thing in the country."

He fished the $3.00 in his pocket and smiled. "That was the extent of his everlasting fortune at present."

The letter had been answered from Detroit.

"I am glad you are settled," he wrote. "At least I know you have enough to eat and a roof over you. I hope sincerely that you will do your best to fit yourself to your new conditions. I know it is hard, but with my lack of experience and my ignorance as to where to take hold it may be a good many years before we can do any better."

When Helen Thorne read this she cried. Things had gone wrong that morning, and an encouraging word would have helped her. The number tone of her brother's communication threw her into a fit of the blues from which for the first time she saw her surroundings in a depressing and distasteful light. And yet he had written as he did with the kindest possible motives.

Thorne had the misfortune to be one of those individuals who, though careless of what people in general may think of them, are in a corresponding degree sensitive to the opinion of the few they love. This feeling was further exaggerated by a constitutional shrinking from any outward manifestation of the emotions. Perhaps for this reason he was never entirely sincere with those he loved.

After the disgrace of his father Harry Thorne had done a great deal of thinking and planning which he kept carefully to himself. He considered in turn the different occupations to which he could turn his hand and negated them one by one. Few business firms would care to employ the son of an avowed embezzler as Henry Thorne. Finally he came to a decision. He communicated this decision to his sister. It would have commended itself more logically to her had she been able to follow step by step the consideration that had led her brother to it. As the event turned, she was forced to accept it blindly. She knew that her brother intended going west, but as to his hopes and plans she was in ignorance. A little sympathy, a little mutual understanding, would have meant a great deal to her, for a girl whose mother she but dimly remembers turns naturally to her next of kin. Helen Thorne had always admired her brother, but had never before needed him. She had looked upon him as strong, self-contained, a little moody.

At the beginning of the row in the smoking car Thorne laid aside his letter and watched with keen appreciation the direct practicality of the trainman's method. When the bearded man fell before the conductor's blow, he turned to the individual at his side.

"He knows how to hit, doesn't he?" he observed. "That fellow was knocked well off his feet."

"He does," agreed the other dryly. "They fell into a desultory conversation of fits and starts. Woodsmen of the genuine sort are never talkative, and Thorne, as has been explained, was constitutionally reticent. In the course of their disjointed remarks Thorne explained that he was looking for work in the woods and intended first of all to try the Morrison & Daly camps at Beeson lake.

"Know anything about logging?" inquired the stranger.

"Nothing," Thorne confessed.

"Ain't much about for anything but lumber jacks. What did you think of doing?"

"I don't know," said Thorne doubtfully. "I have driven horses a good deal. I thought I might drive team."

The woodsman turned slowly and looked Thorne over with a quizzical eye. Then he faced to the front again and spat.

"Quite like," he replied, still more dryly.

The boy's remark had amused him, and he had showed it, as much as he ever showed anything. Excepting always the river men, the driver of a team commands the highest wages among out of door workers.

It is easier to drive a fire engine than a logging team.

But in spite of the naïveté of the remark the woodsman had seen something in Thorne he liked. Such men become rather expert in the reading of character. He revised his first intention to let the conversation drop.

"I think M. & D. is rather full up just now," he remarked. "I'm walkin' boss over there. The roads is about all made, and roadmaking is what a greenhorn tackles first. They's more chance earlier in the year. But if the old fellow—he strongly accented the first word—"ain't nothin' for you, just ask for Tim Shearer, an' I'll try to put you on the trail for some jobber's camp."

The three who had come into collision with Jimmy and had were getting nosier. They had produced a stone jug and had collected the remainder of the passengers, with the exception of Shearer and Thorne, and now were passing the jug rapidly from hand to hand. Soon they became musical, striking up one of the wretched, low drawn out chants so popular with the stinky boys. Thorne shrewdly guessed his companion to be a man of some weight and did not hesitate to ascribe his immunity from annoyance to the other's presence.

"It's a bad thing," said the walking boss. "I used to be at it myself, and I know."

"Been lakel," cried Jimmy fiercely through the aperture of the door.

"You'll find the boardin' house just across over the track," said the woodsman, holding out his hand. "So long. See you again if you don't find a job with the old fellow. My name's Shearer."

"Mine is Thorne," replied the other. "Thank you."

Thorne followed and found himself on the frozen platform of a little dark railway station. Directly across the track from the railway station a single building was perched from the dark by a solitary lamp in a lower story room. The four who had descended before Thorne made over toward this light, stumbling and laughing uncertainly, so he knew it was probably the boarding house and prepared to follow them.

The five were met at the steps by the proprietor of the boarding house. This man was short and stout, with a line-up and cleft palate, which at once gave him the well known sturring speech of persons so afflicted and imparted also to the timbre of his voice a peculiarly hollow, resonant, trumpetlike note. He stamped about energetically on a wooden leg of home manufacture. It was a cumbersome instrument, heavy, with deep pine socket for the stump and a projecting brace which passed under a leather belt around the man's waist. This instrument he used with the dexterity of a third hand. As Thorne watched him he drove in a projecting nail, kicked two "turkeys" inside the open door and stuck the armed end of his peg leg through the top and bottom of the whisky jug that one of the new arrivals had set down near the door. The whisky promptly ran out. At this the cripple tilted the impaled jug from the wooden leg far out over the rail of the veranda into the snow.

A growl went up. "What 'n thunder's that for?" snarled one of the owners of the whisky threateningly.

"Don't allow no whisky here," snuffed the landlord.

The men were very angry. They advanced toward the cripple, who retreated with astonishing agility to the lighted room. There he bent the wooden leg behind him, slipped the end of the brace from beneath the leather belt, seized the other peg end in his right hand and so became possessed of a murderous bludgeon. This he brandished, hopping at the same time back and forth in such perfect poise and yet with so ludicrous an effect of popping corn that the men were surprised into laughing.

"Bully for you, begger," they cried. "Inces an' regerations, boys," replied the latter, without, however, a shade of compromising in his tones. "Hud supper?"

CHAPTER III.

THORNE was awakened a long time before daylight by the ringing of a noisy bell. He dressed, shivering, and stumbled downstairs to the round stove, big as a boiler, into which the cripple dumped huge logs of wood from time to time. After breakfast Thorne returned to this stove and sat half dozing for what seemed to him untold ages. The cold of the northern country was invading him.

MOTHERS, DO YOU KNOW the many so-called birth medicines, and most remedies for women in the treatment of her delicate organs, contain more or less opium, morphine and strychnine?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not take internally any medicine for the pain accompanying pregnancy?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is applied externally only?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is a celebrated prescription, and that it has been in use over forty years, and that each bottle of the genuine bears the name of The Bradford Regulator Co.?

Do you know that when you use this remedy during the period of gestation that you will be free of pain and bear healthy, hearty and clever children?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. Of druggists at $1.00. Don't be persuaded to try a substitute. Our little book "Motherhood" free.

A STRONG STATEMENT FROM A PROMINENT LAWYER OF MEXICO, MO., ENDORSING FOERG'S REMEDY The Great Blood Purifier.

CAPT. C. T. ALLEN, Mexico, Mo. Lawyer, Soldier, Legislator, Lecturer.

Mexico, Mo., Aug. 25, 1903. I knew Philip Foerg, of Princeton, Ky., for thirty years. He was my neighbor and friend. I knew that he originated and, after many years of persistent effort, perfected "Foerg's Remedy." I highly did I appreciate it as a perfect and complete remedy for all kinds and degrees of blood impurities that I endeavored, twenty years or more ago, to organize a joint-stock company to place this wonderful remedy on the world's market. Mr. Foerg very properly declined to surrender the formula for making the remedy unless a sufficient amount of paid-up stock was raised, etc., and this I failed to do. Then Mr. Foerg himself, in a limited way, made and sold it for twenty years before his death. By his will he left the formula for making this remedy to Mr. Hugh Mayer of Princeton, Ky., now Secretary and Treasurer of "The Foerg Remedy Company," Evansville, Ind. I know it to be a fact that Mr. Foerg for twenty years offered $1,000 spot cash (he was amply able to make such an offer) for any case based on blood impurities which his remedy would not cure, and I know that he was often challenged to the contest, and he never lost a case.

C. T. ALLEN.

With the above information before you, if you go on suffering from the curse of poisoned blood, either primary, constitutional or as a result of mercurial treatment, don't rest at fate but simply blame yourself, for here is a cure—absolute and sure. Taints blood manifests itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatic Pains, Stiff or Swollen Joints, Eruptions or Copper-colored Spots on the Face or Body, Little Ulcers in the Mouth or on the Tongue, Sore Throat, Swollen Tonsils, Falling out of the Hair or Eyebrows, and finally a Leprosy-Like Decay of the Flesh and Bones. If you have any one of these symptoms don't delay till too late, but go to your druggist and get a bottle of FOERG'S REMEDY, The Great Blood Purifier.
